March 1: Spring Animals

Baa, Cheep, Moo, Quack...spring is here and so are the baby animals! We are reading The Great Sheep Shenanigans by Peter Bently and Tippy-Toe Chick Go by George Shannon. Our craft will be a wacky jumping chick.

Pre-registration is required

March 8: March Winds

Hold on to your hats...March winds are so strong! We will read Like A Windy Day by Frank Asch & Devin Asch and Go Fly A Kite, Charlie Brown! By Charles Schulz. Our flannel story will be "When March Hats Blow" and today's craft will be a windsock to hang outside!
This program is free and open to the public.

March 15: St. Patrick's Day

Today, we're talking and reading about leprechauns and St. Patrick's Day. First, we'll read Ten Lucky Leprechauns by Kathryn Heling and play Who Took The Gold then we'll go on a hunt for gold in the library. Lastly, our craft will make everyone you know green with envy!

Pre-registration is required

March 22: Spring

Spring is here! Let's celebrate by reading Mud by Mary Lyn Ray and Rabbits Good News by Ruth Bornstein. Then, you'll hear a flannel-board story called "Spring Has Sprung" and end our day by making a beautiful stained-glass kite.
