

Read to a Dog

Join the Morganton Public Library to give holiday cheer to a dog
at Burke County Animal Services
425 Kirksey Drive, Morganton
4-5 pm

Thursdays: November 16 and December 28

Why read to a dog? Reading to a dog gives children extra practice and oral skills. Children feel comfortable because dogs don't judge if a word is mispronounced. If a child feels nervous when reading aloud, dogs can calm them down that can reduce stress and anxiety. Children can gain confidence, self-esteem and it's fun!

Registration is requested, but drop-ins are welcome.
Call 828-764-9274 to sign up.

